Food Tasting Event Welcomes Personalities and Increased Competition Taste of Inverness April 9, 2016

INVERNESS, FLA - The City of Inverness announces new judges, more competition and 17 participating restaurants. This event is about showcasing the best culinary at Liberty Park at 286 N. Apopka Ave., Inverness.

This year's judges were recruited for their passion for food, and their ability to spread the word on their social media platforms. Chef Dennis Little of AskChefDennis.com and Chef Josee Lanzi of Offthhookontheplate.com will bring a new dynamic to the competition.

The City is proud to announce the participation of Arbor Trails Seasons Food Truck, Blazin 7s BBQ, Fox Den Winery, Ice Cream DR, Joe's Family Restaurant, Kookys by Connie, La Cantina de Mexico, Lynn's Ice Cream and Belgian Waffles, McLeod House Bistro, Motor City Pasta and Pizza, Nicole's House of Cakes, Olive Garden, Panera Bread, Papa John's Pizza, Pine Street Pub, Sonny's BBQ and Subway. This year also welcomes a new catering/foodservice category, and the City is proud to announce that Citrus Memorial Hospital and Inverness Club Apartments will take part in the tasting.

This competition includes five new categories: Best Sandwich, Best Ethnic, Best Seafood, Best Barbecue and Best Catering/Foodservice. The remaining categories: Best Casual, Best Fine Dining, Best Vegan, Best Appetizer, Best Pizza, Best Dessert and the Popular Vote. More information and tickets at TasteofInverness.com
